

[In all situations it is my response that decides whether a crisis will be escalated or de-escalated or a child humanized or de-humanized."

-Dr. Haim Ginott

Response Support Plan

Connie Persike, M.S. SLP/CCC | CP Consulting

2623 Dublin Way, Waunakee, WI 53597 | 608-333-4464 | info@cpconsulting.us

Response Support Plan | AGITATION

What does it look like?
If at any time safety becomes a concern, use contact information provided on the next pag
Staff Response List calming strategies and supports:
□ Attachments
Response Support Plan ACCELERATION What does it look like?
If at any time safety becomes a concern, use contact information provided on the next page
Staff Response List calming strategies and supports:
□ Attachments

Functional Behavioral Assessment and Positive Behavioral Support Plan

What does it look like? If at any time safety becomes a concern, use contact information provided below Staff Response List calming strategies and supports: List non-violent crisis intervention techniques: At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized? (i.e., familial involvement, law enforcement, and/or suspension)	Response Sup	portrian	I I LAK
Staff Response List calming strategies and supports: List non-violent crisis intervention techniques: At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?	What does it look lik	xe?
Staff Response List calming strategies and supports: List non-violent crisis intervention techniques: At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
Staff Response List calming strategies and supports: List non-violent crisis intervention techniques: At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
Staff Response List calming strategies and supports: List non-violent crisis intervention techniques: At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
Staff Response List calming strategies and supports: List non-violent crisis intervention techniques: At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
Staff Response List calming strategies and supports: List non-violent crisis intervention techniques: At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
Staff Response List calming strategies and supports: List non-violent crisis intervention techniques: At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
List non-violent crisis intervention techniques: At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?		-		ı, use contact info	ormation provided below.
At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?	Staff Response List	calming strate	egies and supports:
At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
At what point will additional supports or strategies be utilized?
	List non-violent cris	is intervention	n techniques:
(i.e., familial involvement, law enforcement, and/or suspension)
	(i.e., familial involvement,	law enforcement, a	ind/or suspension)
All use of seclusion and restraint should follow provisions set in 2011 Wis. Act 125. The Act applies to both regular and special education student and prohibits the use seclusion or physical restraint except when certain conditions apply.
□ Attachments	□ Attachments
		• • • • •
Contact Names for Additional Assistance	Contact Name	s for Addi	itional Assistance
Contact Names for Additional Assistance Name: Contact Information:					166 act mormation.
Connection
ao ma"					calms."
Callis.					- Dan Siegel
Calliis.

Functional Behavioral Assessment and Positive Behavioral Support Plan

Response Support Plan | DE-ESCALATION

What does it look like?
Staff Response How will the staff support the student as	s s/he de-escalates?
66 The most important aspect of att	tachment is repairing a
rupture "	-Dan Siegel rupture "
rupture "
rupture "
Response Support Plan RECOVERY
rupture "
rupture " Response Support Plan RECOVERY
rupture " Response Support Plan RECOVERY
rupture " Response Support Plan RECOVERY
rupture " Response Support Plan RECOVERY
rupture " Response Support Plan RECOVERY
rupture " Response Support Plan RECOVERY	-Dan Siegel
Response Support Plan RECOVERY What does it look like?	-Dan Siegel
Response Support Plan RECOVERY What does it look like?	-Dan Siegel
Response Support Plan RECOVERY What does it look like?	-Dan Siegel
Response Support Plan RECOVERY What does it look like?	-Dan Siegel
Response Support Plan RECOVERY What does it look like?	-Dan Siegel

Functional Behavioral Assessment and Positive Behavioral Support Plan

Response Support Plan | RECOVERY (continued)

Staff Response Hov	w will staff support the student in repairing any negative outcomes?
☐ Response Plan Vi	sual Attached
Staff Support
now will stall be suj	pported during and after escalated moments?
What strategies will	staff use to support themselves in escalated moments?
☐ Visual Reminders	☐ Frequent rehearsal of response plan ☐ Other:
☐ Cue Cards	☐ Frequent practice of NVCI technique
How will staff debri	ef after escalated moments?
☐ Meeting ☐ Infor	mal conversation Email Other:

The most valuable resources that all teachers have is each other. Without collaboration, our growth is limited to our own perspectives."

-Robert John Meehan