

Understanding Autism

1. How did hearing an individual with autism as well as a parent with autism's perspective affect you?
2. How did you feel when Alex said maybe he could finally "get a break"?
3. What "aha" moment did you have while listening to their perspectives?
4. How will this impact your work with students and families?
5. How can you maintain the impact of these perspectives in your daily work?